

WE CAN THANK GOD FOR EVERY SEASON

SCRIPTURE:

Take a moment to read over the two scriptures below:

Psalms 100 and 1 Timothy 6:6-16

GROW:

Reflect and meditate on the scriptures. Ask your kids the following questions, and share your answers afterwards.

1. What are some specific reasons you can thank God in your current season of your life?
2. How can you make thanksgiving a regular part of your relationship with God?
3. What is a comfort killer?
4. What is your next step?

TALK:

Giving thanks is always easy when things are going good. When we are happy or excited, on our birthday and on Christmas.

But what about when we are sad, or angry? When things don't go our way and we are disappointed?

It is not so easy to give thanks when you feel negative. But taking time to collect yourself and your emotions, recognizing that God may have protected you from something, or prevented a deeper hurt is worth giving him thanks for. We don't always know the end result, but He does. And we can trust that where He leads will bring us closer to Him.

PRAY:

Pray that you can find more joy in who God is, rather than certain circumstances of life.
